LITTLE COTTON TO BE HAD FROM EGYPT.—The English papers contain distressing accounts of the damage by the inundation of Egypt, caused by the extraordinary rise of the waters of the Nile. Many villages have been overwhelmed, with great loss of cattle, and even of human life. The greater part of the standing crop of Indian corn is stated to be lost. Granaries, both Government and private, have been flooded, and already, it is said, there is an intention to prohibit the further exportation of grain from Alexandria. From the cotton districts, where the process of picking the first ripe pods had commenced, there are accounts of heavy losses, sufficient to make a material difference in the extent of the crop, an event to be particularly deplored at the present time. One account states that the loss of cotton will reach at least one-third of the entire amount. It will take months to repair the railroads.

Secretary Seward has refused to pay the back salary of the rebel Charles J. Helm, of Ky., late United States Consul at Havana.

We learn that three of the killed among the Confederate forces, by Col. Burbridge's men, at Woodbury, were formerly citizens of Henry county. Their names were Fletcher Smith, Pendleton, and Scooby, all young men.

The Hon. Jos. Holt is in St. Louis. He is one of the commission appointed to examine and decide upon the accounts of contractors and others against the Government in the Military Department.

We learn that another reinforcement of ten thousand men will be thrown into Kentucky this week, from Ohio and Indiana. Most of them will go on the Louisville line of operations.

F. W. Brigham, mail agent between Evansville and Paducah, had resigned, and R. G. Samuel, of Runsey, McLean county, Ky., has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Piling it on Pretty Steep. The Cincinnati Commercial, of Monday, expressed its indignation at the publication of Adjutant Thomas' anti-Fremont report in very bitter language. Hear how it talks:

The New York Tribune has published the report of Adjutant-General Thomas, says:

"We regret that the Times, in its annoyance, should have been induced to reflect upon the fidelity of official reports for publication. On that point the Departments are quite able to judge for themselves, and we should not feel at liberty to reject either General Thomas or General Stone for any such reason."

The War Department is eternally disgraced by the publication of this document. It is infamous in the extreme, and must be productive of the worst results. The Secretary of War should be at once kicked out of office for authorizing such a publication. It will give aid and comfort to the enemy, and create disorders and demoralization in Fremont's army at least. Public opinion as to the publication of that report, aside from the Fremont question altogether, is decidedly that the War Department is deeply compromised and disgraced beyond remedy by such a proceeding. The rebels certainly have no need of spies. All the spies in the United States could not collect such valuable information for their enemies of the country as is to be found in that report. Besides its effect on the nation of Europe, will be to discredit our national cause, cover it with ridicule, and cause those to whom the Government is committed to be regarded as a set of incapables who are making the war for national salvation a "screaming farce," just as Blackwood calls it.

Mob Law in Terre Haute—We regret to have to record that the Journal office was destroyed about 7 o'clock last night by a very large body of men, supposed to belong to the 43d regiment. We know not what excited them to this act, and we write with shame and mortification for the good name of our city, when we record this event. The act was done very suddenly, taking the whole city by surprise. Every thing in the office and composing room, including presses, &c., were hurled into the street in the wildest destruction. It sickens us to think of it.—T. H. Express, 22d.

The destruction of the Journal office was a dastardly act. We are happy to learn that no citizen of Terre Haute took any part in this cowardly affair, and that it is condemned alike by members of all parties. We have seen nothing in the columns of the Journal to justify such an outrageous proceeding. The Colonel of this regiment is Geo. K. Steele, of Parke county, who was absent, and on his return expressed the deepest mortification at the outrage, and says the guilt of the parties can neither be excused nor screened, and announces that all proper facilities will be offered to the civil authorities for the punishment of the offenders, and that a court of inquiry will be awarded for the purpose, and also to recommend the proper proceedings for military punishment.

WANTS A SITUATION.—Times being hard and a cold winter at hand, many really clever persons are at their wit's end for some means of keeping the wolf from the door. Desperation has driven one of them to the dire extremity he so forcibly portrays in the following advertisement:

WANTED—A SITUATION AS SON-IN-LAW in some respectable family. No objections to being a short distance into the country. For references and particulars, address FRANK STUART, Post-office, Williamsburg, New York.

Mr. Stuart ought to have stated whether he can or can not endure average boarding house coffee, and whether he stands or revolts at West India molasses on his slapsacks. It is well to have these matters clearly understood from the start, and thus avoid those domestic bickerings and other evidences of lighted affection which are the bane of married life.

The Suspension of the Writ of Habeas Corpus—Opinions of the Judges of the Circuit Court.

Deputy Marshal Phillips represented to the Circuit Court to-day that he did not serve the rule issued by that body on the 22d inst., to be served on General Andrew Porter, Provost Marshal for the District of Columbia, because he was ordered by the President of the United States not to serve the same, and to report to the Court that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus has been suspended for the present, by order of the President, in regard to the soldiers of the army of the United States within this District. The Deputy Marshal respectfully disclaims all intent to disobey or treat with disrespect the orders of the Court.

Chief Justice Hamlin delivered an opinion to the Court as follows:

Rule to show cause against General Andrew Porter, Provost Marshal of the District of Columbia, why an attachment of contempt of Court, issued against him for obstructing the process of this Court and the administration of justice under it. The return made by Deputy Marshal Phillips, the 20th of October, we will order to be filed, though we do not doubt our power to regard it as insufficient in law, and to proceed against the officer who made it. The existing condition of the country makes it plain that that officer is powerless against the vast military force of the Executive, subject to his will and order as Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy of the United States.

Assuming the verity of the return, which has been made on oath, the case presented is, in the present, the judicial history of the United States, and involves the free administration of the law of this country. The President, charged by the Constitution to take care that the laws be executed, has seen fit to arrest the process of this Court, and to forbid the Deputy Marshal to execute it. It does not involve merely the question of the power of the Executive in civil war to suspend the great writ of freedom, the habeas corpus. When this rule was ordered to give effect to that writ, no notice had been given by the President to the Courts or to the judges of this Court, and it will hardly be supposed that the suspension could be retrospective. The rule in this case, therefore, whatever may be the President's power over the writ of habeas corpus, was lawfully ordered, as well as the writ on which it was founded. The facts on which the rule was ordered by the Court are assumed to be true, as respects the President, because the President had then before him, and has not denied them, but as respects the Deputy Marshal, we have no such assurance, and it will hardly be supposed that the suspension could be retrospective. The rule in this case, therefore, whatever may be the President's power over the writ of habeas corpus, was lawfully ordered, as well as the writ on which it was founded.

The issue ought to be, and it is, with the President, and we have no physical power to enforce the law of this Court on his military subordinates. Against the President's prohibitions we have explained every practicable remedy to uphold the law, and the authority of this Court. It is therefore ordered, this 27th day of October, that this opinion of the Court be filed by the Clerk, and made part of the record, as explaining the grounds on which we now decide not to order any further proceedings in this case.

Associate Judge Marshall said: As a member of this Court and on its behalf, I wish it understood that, notwithstanding the blow upon this Court, I do distinctly assert the following principles:

First—That the law in this country knows no superior.

Second—That the supremacy of the civil authority over the military cannot be denied; that it has been established by the ablest jurists, and I believe, recognized and respected by the Great Father of this Country during the Revolutionary war.

Third—That the Court ought to be respected by every one, as the guardian of the personal liberty of the citizen, in giving ready and effectual aid by that most valuable means, the writ of habeas corpus.

Fourth—I therefore respectfully protest against the right claimed to interrupt the proceedings in this case.

NEWS FROM SAVANNAH, GA.—We copy the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of the 5th:

A gentleman who has lived many years in the South, arrived in this city yesterday. He left Savannah, Ga., one week ago last Thursday, having spent three days in that city. During that time the French Consul granted eight clearances to vessels, which met with no opposition in leaving the harbor. No United States vessels were seen during the three days, and it was only recently that a United States ship was only occasionally seen off the harbor.

Everybody was expecting the big ship Finland, from England, and Capt. Anderson, of Savannah had left port to receive her. The blockade was laughed at.

The feeling against the North was intensely bitter, and all the men had enlisted for the fight. The slaves were left to take care of home affairs, and their masters appeared to have no fears of them.

The gentleman alluded to came to Bowling Green, Ky., thence to Newport and Louisville. He left Bowling Green last Thursday, and says the rebels were well fortified there, and had plenty of cannon, some of large caliber, and many field pieces, ready for service.

He saw a number of Indians, and it was reported there were 500 there, together with Texan Rangers, who rode their horses about, using either rifles or blades, and were splendidly dressed.

The entire rebel force in that vicinity, as far as he could gather, was from 40,000 to 60,000, and men were arriving at the rate of from 200 to 400 a day. On Wednesday orders were issued and all parties sent to collect 500 wagons, numbers of which were brought in when this gentleman passed through. He saw one man clasp his hands together, and him exclaiming, "All let any amount Buckner is in Louisville in fifteen days." Camps were said to extend for five miles along the road, and he saw three separate camps in the immediate neighborhood of the place.

Our informant lived twenty-five years in the South. Last summer his family came North, and about seven weeks ago, he came also, returned again as stated, and found all his property confiscated and some of his effects sold. As soon as possible, he left himself. He affirms that mild treatment will not accomplish the object of the United States Government. All acts indicating consideration are ridiculed and despised.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.

The steam gunboat Florida, one of the naval expedition, has returned to the Navy Yard, disabled. She left the expedition on Friday night off Cape Fear. She reports that the fleet encountered a heavy gale soon after leaving Hampton, but it died out on Wednesday and again revived on Thursday from the southeast. On Thursday night the machinery of the Florida was disabled, but not seriously, and can be repaired in three days, when she will resume her voyage. She had no troops on board.

Certain persons are endeavoring to revive in Paris the use of the funeral pyre and the preservation of the ashes of the dead in urns instead of the system of inhumation.
